

10 Things to Bring to Maya Bay

Your Ultimate Packing Checklist for a Perfect Trip By @Vacationsavant

---

1. Reef-Safe Sunscreen

- Why: Regular sunscreen harms coral reefs.
- My Tip: Look for brands labeled “reef-safe” or “oxybenzone-free.”

2. Waterproof Bag

- Why: Protect your phone, camera, and valuables from splashes.
- My Tip: A 30-liter bag fits a drone, tablet, and snacks.

3. Reusable Water Bottle

- Why: Avoid single-use plastics and stay hydrated.

- My Tip: Fill up at your hotel before heading out.

4. Snacks

- Why: The snack shop at Maya Bay has limited options.

- My Tip: Pack energy bars, nuts, or dried fruit.

5. Waterproof Phone Pouch

- Why: Capture underwater photos without risking your phone.

- My Tip: Test it at home to ensure it's leak-proof.

6. Hat & Sunglasses

- Why: Protect yourself from the tropical sun.
- My Tip: Secure your hat—monkeys love to steal them!

7. Quick-Dry Towel

- Why: Compact and perfect for drying off after snorkeling.
- My Tip: Choose a lightweight, sand-resistant towel.

8. Snorkeling Gear

- Why: Explore vibrant coral reefs and marine life.
- My Tip: Bring your own for hygiene and comfort.

9. Water Shoes

- Why: Protect your feet from sharp rocks and coral.
- My Tip: Lightweight and easy to pack.

10. Cash (Thai Baht)

- Why: Pay for entrance fees, snacks, and tips.
- My Tip: Carry small bills for convenience.

Bonus Tip:

- Download a Map: Offline maps are handy if you lose signal.
